

Figure 1 displays the normalized energy spectrum  $E_n$  for various fermion numbers  $N_f$ . The x-axis represents the energy  $E_n$ , and the y-axis represents the probability density. The legend indicates the values of  $N_f$  from 1 to 11. The curves show a peak that shifts and changes shape as  $N_f$  increases.

